Contact tracing in Aotearoa

So far New Zealanders have done a great job to limit the spread of COVID-19.

If you have COVID-19, or have been in contact with someone who has, you will get a phone call from a contact tracer. Their job is to collect the details of people you may have come into contact with, so they can help stop the spread of COVID-19.

If they do call you, they will have a number of questions to ask about your activity and movements over the past few weeks.

You can help them to do their job by completing the details in this booklet. This will help them to do their job quickly and help keep our whānau and communities stay safe.

Here's how you can help our contact tracers:

Keep a daily log - who you've been in contact with, places you've been and when.

Update your details - make sure your GP/doctor has your updated contact details.

Answer your phone. If you get a call from (09) 801 3010 or (09) 302 0408, make sure you answer. These are numbers contact tracers and Healthline use to get in touch.

Tracking your day

This section is for you to record where you've been, who you've seen, how you got there, and how long you were there for. This is to help us contact trace anyone you may have come into contact with if you become unwell with COVID-19.

Please record as many details as possible such as names, locations and times. It's also important to record the service tracking number of any public transport you take.

Over the page you will see an example of how to use this Contact Tracker. Use this Contact Tracker in the way that works best for you.
